High Holy Days 5781/2020 Celebrate, Pray, connect

The High Holy Days arrive at a time of deep challenge as coronavirus impacts every aspect of our lives and as our country continues the fight against racism and injustice. For the first time during our lifetime, we will be unable to gather physically together for Rosh Hashanah or Yom Kippur. Throughout the ages, our people have overcome challenges even greater than this moment and I am comforted that we can find solace and strength through our ancient words and timeless traditions.

This year we will be Home for the Holy Days and we encourage you to create a sacred space in your home. Although the High Holy Days will be quite different from years past, we have planned online services that will focus on the values of gathering together in community, allowing music to be a gateway to personal growth, and rediscovering the warmth and comfort of our BSS traditions. As we celebrate the New Year 5781, may our spirits be uplifted, may we find strength to live to the challenge of this moment, and may we glean a sense of optimism for the future.

- Rabbi Andy Gordon

Journey Through the High Holy Days

Our services will be held entirely over the electronic platform Zoom. Most of our service blocks will be no longer than one hour in length. If you can, we encourage you to arrive a few minutes early to welcome old and new friends and to get situated. During Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, we will have 15- or 30-minute stretch breaks between services. This will help break-up the length of the day and provide you with time to move around or take a short walk. Our Zoom room will be open allowing you opportunity to chat and gather in community.

There are many services this year throughout the 10 days of Repentance and before and after the holidays. We encourage you to try a new service this year and to join us for as much or as little as is comfortable.

We know that part of the grandeur of the holidays is being in our sanctuary dressing up, and seeing the larger community. One of the benefits of Zoom is that we will be able to see each other's faces during the service and even talk via the chat feature. We encourage you to keep your video on during the service, so we can see and pray with you. We want to see you!

We also encourage you to think about your physical space. How can you make your home into a sanctuary, a place of sacredness and grandeur? Could you add flowers to your table? Could you move to a comfortable room in your house? Make this year's Home at the Holy Days a sacred and spiritual space for you and loved ones.

TIPS: Throughout the information on pages 6-7, there are TIPS to help provide you with an opportunity to make each moment a meaningful one. We hope that these TIPS will provide you with ways to connect to our BSS community and to our ancient traditions.

B'shalom,

Andy

BOKER TOV MINYAN

Join Rabbi Gordon for a Tuesday morning check-in and meditation experience. We'll gather at 8:00 AM for chanting, prayers of healing, meditation, and time to reflect as the day begins.

Check BSS emails for upcoming gatherings.

From the President

Voting

Right now a helicopter is flying overhead while I'm in downtown Baltimore staying in a friend's condo as the inside of Ralph's and my house is being painted. From high above, the helicopter crew sees a vast expanse of the city. It's a strong reminder that we all live in our own small world within a much larger one.

Swirling around in my head is a lot more than helicopters and paint colors. Top of the list are preparations for our High Holy Days, which are going swimmingly, and voting rights.

Let me tell you, with Rabbi Gordon at the helm and the Religious Culture Committee doing wonderful work, we should all be prepared to celebrate the holidays in a special COVID-19 driven and unique BSS style. It's going to be splendid.

(It is also going to be rather costly because of new features for remote viewing and participation. I encourage everyone who is waiting to pay their 2020-2021 dues to please do so. Feel free to contact me to discuss. Non-members are welcome at our High Holy Day events, of course. In a departure from years past, there will be no fee for tickets, but we encourage visitors to consider the age-old tradition of making a donation to the host institution. (See information on pg. 6.)

While I have no doubt about the success of our High Holy Day services, I do have major worries about the fairness of the 2020 elections. I'm not alone. In a single day last week, I heard from six different Bolton Street Synagogue members asking how we plan to work on voting rights, or to offer to set up a committee to get things going, or wondering how to join a postcard-writing campaign reminding people that voting is essential to democracy.

The Board of Elections has used Bolton Street Synagogue as a polling station for several years. This year, however, we and many others declined to participate because the Board of Elections failed to provide adequate funding to assure a safe and healthy setting.

Bolton Street Synagogue intends to make an impact on election fairness in other ways. By the time you read this issue of Chaverim, a Social Action Committee team being led by our Board Secretary Randi Reichel will have rolled out a plan for engaging with our community partners to help people register to vote, apply for their ballot online, and submit their ballot to be counted. We'll also be crafting a strong message reminding elected officials that we expect accessible mail boxes and ballot boxes in every neighborhood.

Many Jewish organizations across the US are building campaigns to promote democracy. I invite everyone who is interested to find a role. Please contact me at president@boltonstreet.org or Randi Reichel at rreichel4@gmail.com. We have a job to do!

The helicopter is still circling overhead. I envision people voting as far as the eye can see. When we're together in person again, I want to invite you all to my house to celebrate the success of BSS and, I sincerely hope, democracy, and to see our new wall colors.

"If you see something that is not right, not fair, not just, you have a moral obligation to do something about it." Rep. John Lewis (D, GA) said, in May 2016, at Washington University in St. Louis, MO.

"Our security comes in our solidarity. Our safety comes through our democracy." Rabbi Jonah Dov Pesner, Director of the Religious Action Center, at the 2019 URJ Biennial in Chicago.

Shalom,

Glain

Religious School News

Summer has flown by and we are getting ready to welcome everyone to Bolton Street Synagogue Religious School!

The teachers and I have been working throughout the summer to be ready to provide our students with quality Jewish education that can be experienced both online and in person.

We will kick-off our year on Sunday, September 13 with a Drive-in Family celebration. Please click here to sign up for a time slot for your family. You will meet the teachers, participate in a school-wide project and receive a welcome kit that will include a borrowed copy of the children's High Holiday prayer book to use for our High Holiday services for families.

Our weekly Sunday sessions will begin on Sunday, October 4. Click here for ShalomLearning Parent Info to learn more about the curriculum we will be using this year for both online and in-person instruction. For now, we will be meeting weekly online. Our hope is that we will be able to shift to in-person instruction at some point in the school year. We are using the ShalomLearning curriculum so that we can easily pivot to in-person instruction when it is safe to do so. That decision will be guided by Baltimore City requirements, as well as guidance from the Bolton Street Synagogue Corona Virus Task Force.

We have spent much of the summer exploring curricula and learning how to use the technology to enhance our instruction and build community. Even while we are online, our students will have music with Nomi and time with our Shinshin. Keep an eye out for weekly emails for ways to build on the learning your children are experiencing during class time. In addition, while we are online, we will be providing small group Hebrew instruction. As we get closer to the October 4 session, look for an email assigning your child's Hebrew instruction time. Grades Bet (2) Zayin (7) will have small Hebrew classes either before Havdalah or after Minyan, in addition to the Shalom-Learning class time.

While we meet online, our Shevet Achim students (grades 8&9) will join the whole school for minyan at 10:30am, and then will have class with David Speer, our Shinshin, Rabbi Gordon or me 10:55am -12:00pm.

If you have not yet enrolled your child in religious school for this year, please email me at chermann@boltonstreet.org so we can be ready to start the school year together.

Wishing you and your family a sweet and healthy New Year!

Social Action Committee News

The members of the SAC continue to be active this summer, though less with in-person events and more with Zoom-based discussions and organizing. We continue to grapple with the issue of racism nationally and in our own communities – and what we can do to promote an anti-racist agenda and social justice. Among the activities we are spearheading are:

- A group of 20 congregants has been participating in a facilitated discussion of racism and anti-Black perspectives guided by the book White Fragility. A video they watched on the myth of race is included here. If you are interested in participating in these discussions, there will be another group started after the High Holidays – please contact Debra Brown-Felser at debrabrownfelser@gmail.com.
- A review of the call by Black Jews, Non-Black Jews of Color, and allies to re-imagine what racial justice means in our synagogue – guided by the obligations described in: <https://www.notfreetodesist.org>. In recognizing that inclusion needs to go beyond just conversations of race, we are also incorporating disability inclusivity in this conversation – through a review of the materials from the Ruderman family foundation - <https://disabilitiesinclusion.org/>. If you are interested in being part of this conversation and initiative, please reach out to Judy Bass at jbass1@jhu.edu.
- We continue to grapple and talk about how we can be involved in police reform in Baltimore and nationally – currently through ongoing collaboration with Jews United for Justice: <https://jufj.org/where-we-work/maryland-state/annapolis-police/>
- And as we gear up for the election season, we have members actively involved in Get Out the Vote (GOTV) activities and ensuring access to absentee and mail-in voting options. If you are interested in getting more involved in these bipartisan issues, please reach out to Randi Reichel reichel4@gmail.com.

Please know everyone is welcome to join the Social Action Committee meetings at any time. We meet at 7pm on the first Wednesday of the month. Feel free to come and learn more about what we are doing – and then, get involved!

EREV SUKKOT
Friday, October 4

6:30 PM - Join us from your home sukkah for a celebration to welcome the holiday of booths.

Rabbi Gordon looks forward to welcoming you into his sukkah!

Prayer Books

This year we are excited to use a brand new prayer book Mishkan HaNefesh the new Reform Movement's High Holy Day prayer book, thanks to a generous donation in honor of Stan Scherr by his friends. In order to make these High Holy Days a more majestic and meaningful moment, we will be loaning our prayer books out to our Bolton Street Synagogue members over the holidays. We ask that everyone take extra care of the prayer books and return them to us in good time and in good condition.

In addition to the prayer books, our Membership Engagement Committee is creating High Holy Day Engagement Bags that can be picked up at the same time with some important resources and gifts that we will use during our services. Head over to our BSS parking lot on Sunday, September 13, 10am - 12pm to pick up your books and bags.

For those members who are unable to pick-up the prayer books, please reach out to the synagogue office to arrange for a pick-up or drop-off time. A member of our Engagement Committee will be happy to drop off the prayer books if you are unable to pick them up yourselves.

TIP: In addition, there are two ways for guests and BSS members to access an electronic copy of the prayer books. You can turn pages easily on an electronic device with the FREE Rosh Hashanah (gold book) and Yom Kippur (silver book) flip-books. Members and guests can also purchase their own kindle version for Rosh Hashanah or Yom Kippur

Book collection and return will be at the BSS parking lot on Sunday, October 4, 11am - 1pm. We ask that all prayer books be returned by October 16th.

Family Services

Our Family Services are Free and Open to the Entire Community

Cory Hermann and Rabbi Andy Gordon will lead High Holy Day Family Services geared especially for families with tots and religious school children. These services will be filled with singing, prayerful experience for all ages, and a story. Join us on Rosh Hashanah morning (September 19th) and Yom Kippur morning (September 28th) from 9am – 9:45am. Registration for guests is required! Guests should register here or rsvp to Justine Abel at jabel@boltonstreet.org

Accessing Our Online Services

Zoom Links for Our Members

All current members of Bolton Street Synagogue will be able to access free Zoom links for all of our High Holy Day Services. For the safety of all, we ask that you don't share these links with others.

Non-members, guests, and family members are encouraged to join us.

We are excited to welcome guests, neighbors, family members, and friends for all of our High Holy Day services. Registration is required to receive the Zoom link for our services.

Our suggested donation is $180 for a High Holy Day pass that provides non-members and guests with all Zoom links and access to all of our High Holy Day services. We recognize this is a difficult time for many of us. Each guest is encouraged to pay whatever amount is appropriate (whether less or more if you are able) for the High Holy Day Pass.

You are welcome to pay by credit card or check. Tickets can be purchased electronically here or by contacting Justine Abel at jabel@boltonstreet.org or 410.235.5354, ext. 101.

High Holy Days 5781 Schedule

Selichot: A Baltimore Reform Jewish Community Gathering

Saturday, September 12, 2020

8:00 pm – Classical Concert

9:00 pm – Selichot Service

BSS joins together with Baltimore Hebrew Congregation and Oheb Shalom-Har Sinai Congregation for a joint service as we prepare spiritually for the High Holy Days.

TIP: Selichot is a taste of the High Holy Days with a short service that hits all the major prayers. Take this evening to prepare spiritually for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.*

Erev Rosh Hashanah Seder

Friday, September 18, 2020

6:30 pm - 7:30 pm

For generations, Sephardic Jews have welcomed the New Year with a short celebration called a Rosh Hashanah Seder. We will join together with a musical prelude with Mark Giuliano and Leslie Margolis, liturgical welcome to 5781, as well as a short seder that includes specific foods eaten to symbolize a hope for the New Year.

TIP: We encourage you to prepare in advance for our Rosh Hashanah Seder. We will recite blessings over the following foods: apples, honey, challah, wine/grape juice, figs, pomegranate, beets, green beans, pumpkin/gourd, scallion, fish head/lettuce. There is no pressure to have any or all of the items at home, but the more foods the merrier!*

Rosh Hashanah, Day One

Saturday, September 19, 2020

9:00am - 9:45am - Rosh Hashanah Family Service

Cory Hermann and Rabbi Gordon will lead a service geared especially for families with tots and religious school children which will be filled with singing, prayerful experience for all ages, and a story.

TIP: This service is open to the entire community! Please invite family members, friends, and neighbors to join us for this celebratory family friendly Rosh Hashanah Service.*

10:15am - 11:15am - Rosh Hashanah Liturgy & Sermon

We will focus on the Rosh Hashanah liturgy and conclude with Rabbi Gordon's Sermon.

TIP: There will be a 15-minute stretch and schmooze break between the services. We encourage you to join us for both of our service blocks or whatever feels comfortable.*

11:30am - 12:30pm – Torah Service and Shofar Service

We resume with the Torah reading and the shofar blowing.

TIP: Our Shofar Service will begin around noon. We encourage our children to ensure you are ready to hear the shofar blast.*

Rosh Hashanah, Day Two

Sunday, September 20, 2020

10:15am - 11:15am - Rosh Hashanah Service & Discussion

We will focus on the Rosh Hashanah liturgy and conclude with a lively discussion.

11:30am - 12:30pm – Torah Service and Shofar Service

We resume with the Torah reading and shofar blast.

3:30pm - 4:00pm – Tashlich

We gather for an online service with singing & prayers.

TIP: Tashlich is an opportunity to "castaway" your misdeeds from the last year with bread or birdseed. We encourage you to find a place outdoors near your home such as a free-flowing body of water (i.e., a river, stream, or pond) for this service.*

Erev Yom Kippur/Kol Nidre

Sunday, September 27, 2020

7:30pm - 9:00pm

TIP: Don't be late! We'll begin with the haunting melody of Kol Nidre sung by Rachel Graber, our cantorial soloist, as well as the playing by Gita Ladd on cello and Lewis Berman on piano.*

Yom Kippur

Monday, September 28, 2020

9:00am - 9:45am – Yom Kippur Family Service

Cory Hermann & Rabbi Gordon will lead a service geared toward families with tots & religious school children filled with singing, prayerful experience for all ages, & a story.

TIP: This service is open to the entire community! Please invite family members, friends, and neighbors to join us for this celebratory family friendly Yom Kippur Service.*

10:15am - 11:15am – Yom Kippur Service and Sermon

We will focus on the Yom Kippur liturgy and conclude with Rabbi Gordon's Sermon.

TIP: There will be a 15-minute stretch and schmooze break between the services. We encourage you to join us for both of our services or whatever feels comfortable!*

11:30am - 12:30pm – Torah Service & Service of Repentance

The Torah reading as well as our service on repentance.

TIP: Our creative Vidui Service of forgiveness and repentance will allow opportunity for reflection, writing, and discussion. Bring an open mind, a pen, and some paper!*

1:00pm - 1:45pm – Yizkor Service of Remembrance

We will provide opportunity to reflect upon our losses this past year and remember our loved ones.

TIP: We will light candles during our service. If you have a yahrzeit candle (or even a tea light), feel free to have it ready as we remember our loved ones.*

2:30pm - 3:30pm – Adult Discussion

We gather to grapple with the racism and injustice in our world and to hear from Jews of Color in our community.

4:00pm - 4:45pm – Book of Jonah Conversation

We read & reflect upon the Book of Jonah and connect the themes of this book through conversation.

5:00pm - 5:30pm – Healing Service

We need time for healing ourselves, our community, & our country. Join us for a service of music, prayer, & reflection.

5:45pm - 6:30pm – Ne'ilah Concluding Service

A short and sweet service that ends Yom Kippur.

TIP: Our service concludes with Havdalah (a prayer separating Yom Kippur from the rest of the week) and the shofar blast. We encourage you to have a Havdalah candle (or any candle) ready as we end our service. Help us fill our screen with light!*

Erev Sukkot

Friday, October 2, 2020

6:30 pm

Join us from your home sukkah for a celebration to welcome the holiday of booths.
