

Chaverim September/October 2022 Religious School News

Greetings from Bolton Street Synagogue Religious School! We are so excited to get this new school year started. Below are some important reminders as we get ready for the school year.

Do you have a child in Kindergarten through 9th grade? Are they registered for our program yet? What are you waiting for? Please reach out to me, Cory Hermann, as soon as possible so your child can learn and be a part of an amazing Jewish community.

We will open our year with a Religious School Open House and Cookout on Sunday, September 11. We will begin at 10:00 am in the sanctuary, adults and students together, followed by classroom visits and activities. Meet the teachers and the parents of students in your child's class. At 11:30 am, we will have an early cookout lunch. Interested in being a grill master for the morning? Please let me know!

Our regular classes begin on Sunday, September 18, at 9:00 am. We begin with Havdalah, and will end every week with t'filah in our sanctuary. Classes will go back to the pre-Covid timeframe of 9:00 am-12:00 pm. You can find our school year calendar here: Click here for 2022-23 Calendar

Have you always wanted to learn how to read Hebrew? We are happy to offer a class for you! There is an Adult Hebrew Class interest meeting on Sunday, October 2 at 9:30 am. The class will be taught by Rabbi Gordon and Cory Hermann on Sunday mornings, 9:30-10:30, starting on Sunday, October 9.

Looking ahead, did you know that BSS is having a Congregational Retreat? Friday-Saturday, November 18-19, at Capital Camps. Be on the lookout for sign up info. Uri Feinberg, our amazing Israel Educator, will be coming back to Baltimore to join us for the retreat! In addition, information about our Congregational trip to Israel in December 2023 will be out very soon as well. This trip is for all who would like to join.

I hope your summer was filled with family, rejuvenation and fun. See you soon at BSS!
